DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
HENRY D. ALLEN,
OF UNION COUNTY.

There are no snakes in Porto Rico.

It is still unsettled whether or not the Garcia letter is a fake.

Dewey is a member of the Episcopal church.

Few if any of the new generals are in favor of a short war.

Hobson started back as soon as he delivered his reports at the Departments.

The departure of Gen. Brooke leaves Gen. Wade in command at Chickamauga.

Gen. Garcia is not the first great man whose letters had to be written by a newspaper reporter.

Two of the Chickamauga soldiers died Saturday. One was from Wisconsin and the other from Pennsylvania. They had typhoid fever.

War was declared three months ago to-day. If Havana had been promptly attacked at the opening of hostilities the war would have been over by now.

The Second Kentucky regiment was the first to reach Chickamauga, but it will be the last to leave. The race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong.

Ex-Gov. Stone, of Missouri, has declared himself in favor of territorial expansion and he will find many Democrats with him on this proposition.

Gen. Miles has already telegraphed for additional convoys, for lighters, for tugs and for snagboats. Perhaps his next telegram will be to order his porcelain bathtub forwarded to him.

Missouri is re-doubling the efforts to enforce the laws against the use of oleomargarine and butterine in that State. In that respect, Missouri is a long way ahead of Kentucky. Some of the state institutions of Kentucky use butterine as a substitute for butter.

Chas. Spalding, a former banker of Chicago, now a convict in the Illinois penitentiary, while attending court as a witness Saturday, secured permission of his guards to be married to Miss Sarah Louise Erwin his former stenographer and the wedding was performed in the clerk's office. The bride will await his coming at the end of his term.

Mr. R. M. Collier is the first candidate to announce for 1899. He wants to be the Democratic nominee for Auditor and so informs the public in his home paper, the Cynthiana Democrat. It is to be hoped Mr. Collier's middle-name is not Merrimac. He might be sunk in the channel when the convention is held.

Lieut. John Lind, quartermaster of the 12th Minnesota volunteers, now at Chickamauga, has formally accepted the nomination for governor tendered to him by the Democrats, silver Republicans and Populists. Lieut. Lind was formerly the Republican Congressman from the old Second Minnesota district. Two years ago he was the candidate of the fusion forces for governor.

The Cynthiana Democrat says: Hon. James R. Pugh, who is a Democrat, retires from the race for the Democratic nomination for congress in the 9th since his brother has been nominated by the Republicans, and says: "He has told me if I ran it would cause a breach between our families. He further says that should I be nominated he would withdraw from the race. Under such conditions as that I shall resign my ambition hitherto entertained, and sincerely thank my friends over the district for their kind solicitations in my behalf."

WARRIORS IN CAMP.

Bob Buckner a "Deserter" and Henry Williams a "Laundryman."

Some of the most readable letters from Chickamauga have appeared in the Owensboro Messenger, over the signature of Warrior. The following extracts are from the last one:

"All of our crowd agree that this war is all right and that we want to see it through as we are in it, but to a man they say if another comes up the younger brood, or as they term it, fresh suckers, can go along and assist Uncle Sam.

Our musician, Buckner, took a little trip to Hopkinsville not long ago and had not exactly gone through the formality of asking for a furlough. He got only $5 and five days and a few blisters in his hands that a cruel pick and shovel put on them as a little "momentum," as the Owensboro society folks say. Buck is in good standing now, and is clerk for Markham Hines, the acting regimental quartermaster. They make a good strong pair. The colonel told the boys to accept no clothing except it fitted, and Markham and Bob can try a coat on a Reub and make him think it "fits like the paper on the wall" in truly Hebrew fashion.

Markham Hines is from Bowling Green, and is about the busiest man up here. In addition to his office duties, he does the washing for the boys in the Bowling Green company and ours. We all pay him in cigarettes. This branch of business grew so rapidly that he had to have an assistant in Harry Williams, who is a newspaper correspondent, and was formerly enrolling clerk in the legislature. Williams has to be paid in smoking tobacco, of which our company has plenty right now. Both of these are from Bowling Green, and say when they get back they are going to start a Chinese laundry. I pity the people of Bowling Green who entrust their soiled linen to these two, but don't want to queer the intended business venture of my comrades. Williams is regimental color bearer and is so large and fat that a Spanish bullet can not fail to hit him, especially when they have our silk flag to sight by.

The Bowling Green Company is just across the street from us, and from Capt. Clark down to Henry Williams and Markham Hines contains a set of the nicest fellows on the grounds. Bowling Green must be a nice place, and when I come back I am going to try and make arrangements with Col. Park to go over there and spend two or three months with them.

How long after a war is over before we veterans can commence having reunions? If it is not too long, Hines, Williams and myself will get up a monster one, and tell the outsiders camp stories and all that. I believe we will be allowed to keep this up about fifty years, won't we? The vets of the civil war have kept it up for over thirty years, and are not through yet, and we want to have the same privilege."

JIM BLAINE'S SON.

Figures in a Drunken Fight Over a Variety actress.

Capt. James G. Blaine, who sailed for Manila Saturday, figured in a lively quarrel in San Francisco Thursday night, the details of which have just come to light. Summer Hollender, a young society man who had paid much attention to Madeline Bouton, now playing at the Columbia theater, had invited her to a small supper at the grotto. While the party was at the table young Blaine came in, it is said, somewhat under the influence of liquor. He glared at Hollender, and, advancing to the table, began to pick a quarrel with him. Miss Bouton became alarmed and fled and other guests also departed hurriedly. Blaine and Hollender were separated before serious trouble had resulted. It is said the two men had had some trouble over business.

Such is Fame.

Last November Lieut. Hobson placed with a clippings bureau an order for all the newspaper mentions of himself. From that time until he sailed with Sampson only forty such clippings were collected. Now they pour in at the rate of 400 a day.

RELIABILITY

is a quality some newspapers have lost sight of in these days of "yellow" journalism. They care little for truth and a great deal for temporary sensation.

It is not so with THE CHICAGO RECORD.

The success of THE RECORD rests upon its reliability.

It prints the news—all the news—and tells the truth about it.

It is the only American newspaper outside New York city that has its own exclusive dispatch boat service and its own staff correspondents and artists at the front in both hemispheres.

It is the best illustrated daily newspaper in the world.

Its war news service is unapproachably the best.

Says the Urbana (Ill.) Daily Courier:

"We read the war news in the other papers, then we turn to THE CHICAGO RECORD to see how much of it is true."

Sold by newsdealers everywhere and subscriptions received by all postmasters. Address THE CHICAGO RECORD, 181 Madison street, Chicago.
